

CONCORD TRANSCRIPT

DECEMBER 14, 2006

Young martial artists

THE COMMUNITY YOUTH CENTER, above, was packed with martial arts students, their friends, families and residents for the recent grand opening celebration of the CYC's Martial Arts Center. A group of the youth center students demonstrate their skills as the audience crowded around the practice mats. The youth center has added the kyuin do, as well as tae kwon do, to the sports activities it offers. At left, two students, Hanyng Astorren, 15, top, and Rangel Shin, 21, demonstrate martial arts maneuvers at the opening of the Martial Arts Center at the CYC, with other youth in a 1-2-3-4, who participate in nine professional programs, as well as six area level experience center.

Staff photos
by The Main Top